

Common Purpose
Global Leader Experience

New York

What if the world's greatest challenges were in your hands?

12 years
80+ Universities
100 programmes
4,000 students

Join a Global Leader Experience (GLE) and develop your leadership skills and Cultural Intelligence (CQ), while establishing a genuinely global network. Along with your fellow participants, you will play a part in tackling the biggest issues facing business, governments and society today.

A GLE gives you real and practical experiences, instils in you a global perspective and challenges you to adapt and thrive in diverse situations. It equips you with the tools you need to lead change, now and in the future.

“When students from diverse backgrounds work and learn together, it provides a huge boost to their Cultural Intelligence, preparing them to become the leaders of the future.”

Shuvo Saha, Director, Google Digital Academy

“I learned more about the different options I have available to me as a career as I move forward. This was an incredible program, the best of its kind. I met so many individuals that will go on to do great things and networked with/had mentors that have left lasting impressions.”

Cory Rusin, student, Binghamton University
Participant, New York GLE 2017

Why should you take part?

- To be a global leader now - develop your skills and Cultural Intelligence (the ability to cross boundaries and thrive in multiple cultures)
- To change the world - bring fresh solutions to complex problems
- To develop networks - with the breadth of relationships needed for success today

What happens?

The challenge for is “How do we ensure technological innovation delivers societal as well as economic value in cities ?”

As a participant, you will explore this major world challenge from a local perspective. You will meet visionary leaders from global businesses, governments and international not-for-profit organizations to help you and your fellow participants understand the challenge in order to create innovative solutions.

Best of all, you won't be alone; you will build your connections and make new friends- and the solutions and knowledge you all build will be passed to participants on other GLEs around the world.

Who could you meet?

During the four days, you will direct your own learning, speaking to leaders from and visiting organizations such as:

- NYPD
- Hunger Free America
- Microsoft
- Generation Citizen
- Mayors Office

Where do we run GLEs?

Common Purpose runs GLEs in cities around the world, where large numbers of the world's talent convene to study, so you will meet fellow students from across the globe amongst this diverse group of participants.

A global network

Everyone who finishes a Common Purpose programme, anywhere in the world, is welcome to join the Common Purpose 360 network - an 80,000 strong, growing, global community of our alumni with exceptional diversity and a huge range of skills, interests and leadership experiences.

Some will be very senior, experienced leaders across the public, private and NGO sectors, others will be emerging leaders and some will be fellow students just finishing university. This breadth and depth makes the network unique.
